

1965 CLASS B BOYS BASKETBALL STATE CHAMPIONS

..... KENMARE HONKERS

The 1965 North Dakota High School Activities Association Class B Boys Basketball State Tournament was played March 18-20 at Minot's Municipal Auditorium.

The Tournament field was made up of Maddock, Parshall, New England St. Mary's, Osnabrock, St. Catherines (Valley City), Casselton, Kenmare and Linton.

Parshall, St. Catherines and Osnabrock were making their first ever appearances at "The B" while Kenmare was making its 11th trip in program history.

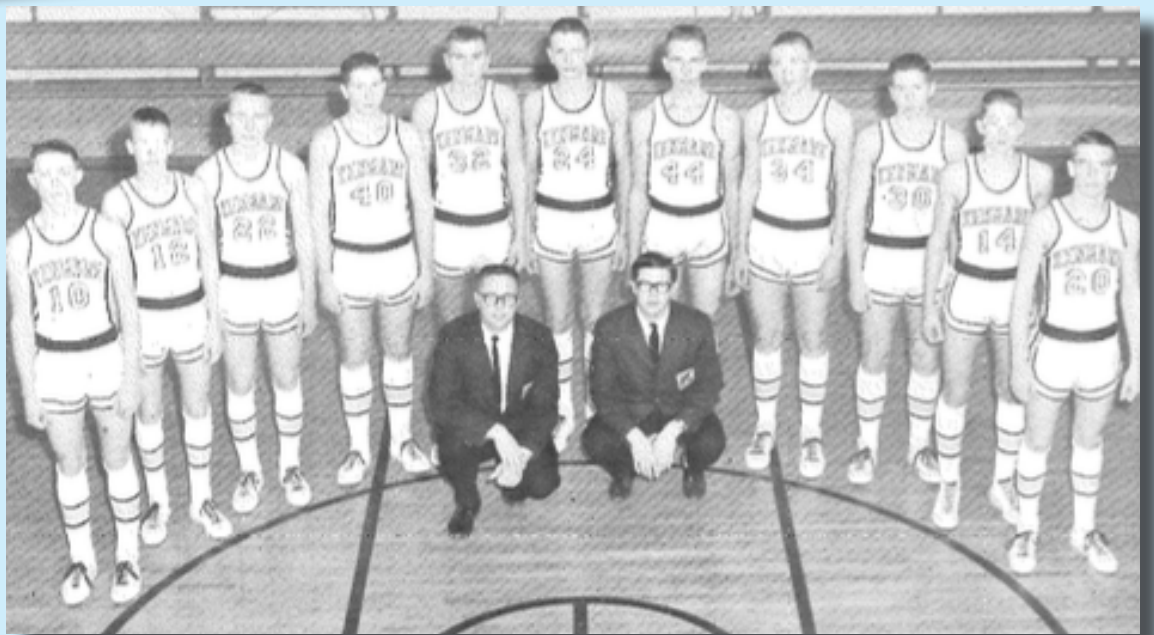

The Honkers' experience showed. Kenmare edged Linton 57-53 in the quarterfinals and followed with a 59-40 win over St. Catherines.

Kenmare met Maddock in the championship and cruised to a 50-31 victory. The Honkers were paced by Delton Olson (20 points) and Dale Olson (12 points). Delton and Dale Olson shared Tournament MVP honors and the Honkers celebrated their second state championship in three years.
