2000 NDHSAA Class B Girls Basketball State Champions Starkweather/Munich Magic Storm

The 2000 NDHSAA Class B Girls Basketball State Tournament played at the Bismarck Civic Center featured a talented field of eight teams sporting a combined 189-11 record entering tournament play.

Kindred (22-3), Larimore (22-3), Linton (24-1), Starkweather/Munich (25-0), Washburn (24-1), Mohall (24-1), Dickinson Trinity (25-0), and Trenton (23-2) all converged on the capital city in hopes of winning a state championship.

Top-ranked all season, and eventual state champions Starkweather/Munich, coached by Karla Kitsch, would matchup with a talented Linton squad in the quarterfinals. Linton, ranked No. 3, entered the state tournament averaging 68.2 points per game, but the Becks of Starkweather/Munich proved to be too much for the Lions. The Magic Storm grabbed full control of the game closing out the second quarter on a 10-2 run, giving them a 28-14 halftime lead. The Magic Storm never looked back and cruised to a 54-40 win. The Becks accounted for 46 of the Magic Storm's 54 points. Rachel Beck led the way with a double-double, scoring 16 points and grabbing 11 rebounds. Sister, Monica Beck had eight points and four rebounds, cousins; Jessica Beck contributed 12 points and four rebounds, and Karla Beck came off the bench adding 10 points. While senior point guard Lindsey Haaven chipped in with six points and three assists.

In the semifinals, Starkweather/Munich put together another convincing victory over Mohall by the score of 53-37. Rachel Beck finished with a season high of 17 points and six rebounds to pace the Magic Storm. Karla Beck added 13 points and Jessica Beck tallied eight points. Lindsay Haaven added seven points, three rebounds, and two assists. Sheila Wass and Monica Beck each contributed four points in the victory.

In only the fifth season of the Starkweather/Munich co-op, the program found itself in a state championship game. Munich had the co-op's lone state title – winning the 1978 Class B state championship.

In a season spent entirely as the No. 1-ranked team Starkweather/Munich would put its ranking and undefeated record on the line one last time against Larimore in the state championship game. The Magic Storm had defeated the Polar Bears 64-46 in the regular season. In the title match up, the Polar Bears hung tight and took the lead midway through the first quarter. Starkweather-Munich took control with an 11-2 start to the second quarter. By halftime, they would be up 30-18 and would defeat Larimore 60-43 to close out a "PERFECT STORM" 28-0 season. Rachel Beck, who was named Tournament MVP, scored 19 points and four rebounds leading a Magic Storm squad that had six players scoring six or more points in the championship game. Jessica Beck had 11 points, Sheila Wass, Lindsay Haaven, and Monica Beck all would finish with eight points respectively. While Karla Beck added six points. Rachel, Jessica, and Karla Beck were all named to the all-tournament team.

1974 NDHSAA Class B Girls Basketball State Champions Hankinson Pirates

After a decade-plus long hiatus of no high school girls basketball state tournaments in the state of North Dakota, the 1974 season would usher in a new era for the sport.

Beginning in the fall of 1974, schools participating in the sport of girls basketball were divided up into two classes (Class A and Class B) with each culminating in a separate state tournament.

The 1974 Class B State Tournament would be played at the Minot Municipal Auditorium. The tournament field consisted of McHenry, Kulm, Starkweather, New England, Central Cass, Noonan, White Shield and Hankinson.

Only one squad, the Hankinson Pirates entered the state tournament undefeated with a 16-0 record after defeating Oakes 41-27 in the Region 1 Tournament to earn a trip to the state tournament that would prove to be very successful.

Hankinson, coached by Nancy Johnson, featured a roster full of multi-sport athletes that had contributed to the Pirates' Class B girls track and field team state championships in 1972 and 1973. The team also featured three sets of sisters (Deb and Cathy Mauch, Melanie and Holly Heitkamp, and Lori and Deb Smith) who provided the squad with ready-made chemistry needed to make a run in the postseason.

Leading the way for the Pirates was senior forward Becky Boll who averaged 27.7 points per game and 18.7 rebounds per game. Hankinson also featured junior London Reile who also averaged double figures in scoring (17.4 ppg) and posted a 9.1 rebounds per game average in 1974.

At state, Hankinson would matchup with White Shield in the quarterfinals and cruised to a 73-51 win over the Warriors.

Boll paced the Pirates with 34 points and 23 rebounds. Reile also notched a double-double in the quarterfinals with 27 points and 11 rebounds. In the semifinals, Hankinson would meet Central Cass – a matchup that the Pirates would ultimately emerge victorious from by a score of 64-39 with the combination of Boll and Reile dominating play once more. Reile led all scorers with 34 points and added 11 rebounds while Boll finished with 23 points and 15 rebounds.

Waiting for the Pirates in the state championship game was a talented McHenry squad that had edged Starkweather 39-32 in the semifinals to earn a trip to the state title game.

In the title game, Hankinson overwhelmed McHenry on the glass outrebounding the Blazers 63-25 that led to the Pirates to a 51-43 victory for the coveted NDHSAA Class B state championship in front of an announced crowd of 3,700 fans. Boll accounted for 26 rebounds in the championship game and poured in 15 points on the offensive end. Reile finished with 19 points and 16 rebounds. Despite the lopsided advantage in rebounds, Hankinson and McHenry were even on the scoreboard much of the first half. The Pirates first lead of the game came via a made putback by Reile off a missed free throw attempt by Lori Smith with four seconds remaining in the first half to put Hankinson up 22-21.

Hankinson would pull away in the second half to complete the undefeated season with a 19-0 record. Reile finished the tournament scoring 80 points and 38 rebounds. Boll ended tournament play with 72 points and 64 rebounds.
